

Integration of Planning and Sustainable Transport – 13 September 2017
Can we improve the integration of planning and transport for a better future?

09:40 - 10:00	Tea/Coffee and Registration
10:00 - 10:05	Welcome/Housekeeping	Andrew Hugill – Director of Policy & Technical Affairs, CIHT
10:05 – 10:15	Challenges of the day How do we improve the integration of planning and transport for a better future for all?	Chair - Lynda Addison , Chair, CIHT Sustainable Transport Panel
10:15 - 10:40	Keynote The importance of integration of planning & transport – a Government perspective	David Waterhouse – DCLG (invited) & Isobel Pastor – Department for Transport
10:40 - 11:05	Homes and Communities Agency The opportunities new technology creates for planning better places - for large and small sites	Jon Sandford – National Infrastructure Lead, Planning, Enabling & Design, HCA
11:05 - 11:20	Q & A
11:20 - 11:35	Comfort break
11:35 – 12:00	How Birmingham is delivering sustainable transport? How can sustainable transport be delivered through development?	David Harris – Transport Policy Manager, Growth & Transportation (Economy Directorate), Birmingham City Council
12:00 – 12:30	A developer's view What are the barriers and opportunities to achieving sustainable transport as part of a development?	Crest Nicholson Argent
12:30 - 12:55	Using modelling to plan for accessibility Accessibility of sites is key when taking development proposals through planning	Myles McGregor - Associate, Curtins
12:55 - 13:05	Q & A
13:05 - 13:50	Lunch
13:50 – 14:00	Welcome Back Introduction to the afternoon session Your ideas for the future. How to move forward?	Chair - Lynda Addison Chair, CIHT Sustainable Transport Panel
14:00 - 14:25	How to achieve a better place The reality on the ground?	Jon Parker – Managing Director, ITP and Phil Copsey or Keith Brown , David Lock Associates
14:25 - 14:50	The evidence base What the evidence is telling us about planning and transport in practice.	David Knight - Associate Director, Clarkebond
14:50 - 15:10	CIHT Survey results How effective have local authorities been in securing sustainable travel outcomes?	Lynda Addison - Chair, CIHT Sustainable Transport Panel
15:10 - 16:00	Workshops – The way forward [three parallel workshops] Aim: identify the top 4/5 priority actions 'What are the key actions that need to be taken to improve the integration of transport and planning' <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - At the national level - At the local authority/regional level - At the development level 	John Elliott , TAG Scott Witchalls , Peter Brett Associates LLP Jon Parker , ITP (invited)
16:00 – 16:30	Feedback – How do we move forward?
16:30	Close	